

The Communications Chair:

- The Communications Committee shall be responsible for distributing information relevant to the Organization. Modes of communication include, but are not limited to, email, print, and social media. Regularly works in conjunction with the Information and Technology Committee to maintain and update PNACAC website.